EXECUTE CAPTAIN

Tried to Ram U-Boat—Death Sentence by Germans.

Captain Fryatt Is Tried Before Kaiser's Military Court.

Berlin, July 28.—Captain Charles Fryatt of the Great Eastern railway steamship Brussels, which vessel was captured by German destroyers last month and taken into Zeebrugge has been executed by shooting after trial before a German naval court martial. The death sentence was passed upon Captain Fryatt because of his alleged action in attempting previously to ram a German submarine.

Testimony was presented at the court martial to show that while Captain Fryatt did not belong to the armed forces, he had attempted on March 28, 1915, while near the Maas lightship to ram the German submarine U-33.

Captain Fryatt and the first officer and the first engineer of the Brussels received from the British admiralty gold watches "for brave conduct" and were mentioned in the house of commons. The submarine U-33 according to the official account of the trial had signalled to the British steamer to show her flag and to stop but Captain Fryatt did not heed it and it is alleged, turned at high speed toward the submarine which escaped only by diving immediately several yards below the surface.

Followed Instructions.

Captain Fryatt, the official statement says, admitted that he had followed the instructions of the British admiralty. Sentence was confirmed and the captain was executed and shot for a franc-tireur crime against armed German forces.

The trial was held at Bruges, Belgium, yesterday.

When captured by German torpedo boats on June 24, Captain Fryatt was piloting the steamship Brussels from Rotterdam to Tilbury.

HEAR GAS RATE CASE

St. Joe Company Appeals from Decision of Public Commissioner.

Council Bluffs, July 28.—Judge Walter I. Smith of the United States circuit court of appeals, Judge Campbell of Muskogee, Okla., and Judge Booth of Minneapolis, Minn., constituting a United States court of appeals sitting in Judge Smith's court at Council Bluffs, Iowa, today will hear the application of the St. Joseph, Mo., gas company for an order restraining the Missouri public service commission from its order prohibiting an advance in rates of the company.

Montgomery and Garver.

Robert Garver and W. P. Montgomery, candidates for county attorney, followed.

Montgomery declared his platform was law enforcement for Oakland and every other part of Shawnee county. Garver pointed out that his experiences as assistant fitted him for the office of county attorney.

Seven of the eight candidates for sheriff presented their claims, dodging all personalities. Those present and speaking were Hugh Larimer, G. W. Betts, H. A. Hodgins, H. C. Erickson, R. W. Eaton and W. T. Dawson.

Ralph Gay and D. H. Brannaman, candidates for probate judge, presented their claims, each urging a better economy in the administration of the business of the office.

Three candidates for county clerk, William S. Galloway, John Wright and Kenneth Haub, made speeches. Galloway sounded the only note.

He declared the report that he had been put into the race in the interest of another candidate was untrue. He declared he was interested in no campaign except his own and that he was working only his own money and his own time to secure the nomination.

ON EVE OF PRIMARY

Big Republican Rally in Lakewood Park District.

On the eve of the primary election a big Republican rally will be held at Lakewood park at Twenty-second and Quincy streets. The meeting will be held next Monday night and the primary will be held Tuesday. State, county and city candidates who do not come up for election until next spring, are invited to attend and speak.

Governor Capper will be the principal speaker. Other candidates for state office who are on the program are Frank Organ, candidate for state auditor; W. L. Ross, candidate for state treasurer; Matt Wrightman, candidate for state treasurer; Walter Payne, candidate for state treasurer. The probabilities are that most of the county candidates will be there for none of them is overlooking an opportunity to talk to the voters.

Besides the speeches there will be plenty of music by a band.

Topeka car to the corner of Twenty-first street will land you near the meeting place.

FOR WOMEN'S CLUBS

Dr. Crumline Mails Out Book Dealing With Health Questions.

Copies of the new course of study for women's clubs are being mailed to all sections of the state. The booklet was prepared under direction of Dr. S. J. Crumline, secretary of the state board of health.

The new book deals with subjects of general interest to women's clubs. It covers numerous public health questions and has attracted attention not only in Kansas but in other states. All clubs affiliated with the state federation have been supplied with copies of the course, while numerous private and nonaffiliated clubs have been placed on the mailing list. Because of the interest in the course, requests for books have been received from clubs in several other states.

BIG OAKLAND MEETING

As Many Spectators as Candidates Out Last Night.

Ira Orner, candidate for trustee of Topeka township, acted as judge over a flock of county candidates who entered a race against time, at the Oakland school house last night.

Up to last night's meeting called during the campaign has been more or less of a fizzle. Frequently there have been more candidates than electors at the meetings. But under Mr. Orner's management and advance advertising last night's meeting was a big success. He announced in advance that the speakers would be limited to two minutes each. Then he beat the brush for voters and when the candidates began drifting into the school house grounds they were greeted by a large part of the population of Oakland. Mr. Orner presided.

Governor Capper was one of the drawing cards and A. W. Smith was another. Mr. Smith sounded the "keynote" which was merely Republicanism without reference to candidates. Governor Capper discussed law enforcement. He advocated free trade books and an effective mothers pension law. He rapped the present receivership system and referred to it as a "graft-breeder."

Two candidates for state senator, J. A. Troutman and W. F. Schoch, were there. Mr. Troutman is asking for renomination. He asked for a second term. His opponent, Judge Schoch, followed with the statement that not in twenty-five years had a Shawnee county senator been given a second term of four years.

Montgomery and Garver.

Robert Garver and W. P. Montgomery, candidates for county attorney, followed.

Montgomery declared his platform was law enforcement for Oakland and every other part of Shawnee county. Garver pointed out that his experiences as assistant fitted him for the office of county attorney.
